

January 17, 2014

Freedom Industries files for bankruptcy

by Kate White

CHARLESTON, W.Va. -- Freedom Industries, the company that fouled thousands of West Virginians' water with a chemical leak last week, filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy today.

The company's assets and liabilities are "unknown."

Under the bankruptcy code, Chapter 11 permits a company to reorganize and continue operating.